

RNC Message Celebrating The New Year

WASHINGTON – Republican National Committee (RNC) Chairman Reince Priebus and Co-Chairman Sharon Day released the following New Year’s message:

“The New Year is a chance for everyone to take up new opportunities and rededicate ourselves to the things we hold dear,” Chairman Priebus said. “As we flip the calendar to 2016, I hope this year will be one of peace and prosperity for our families and our country.

“2015 was a year of many successes for our party. Republicans hold thirty-two governorships and majorities in sixty percent of state legislatures around the country, and we are eager to bring conservative leadership to communities in those states. As we look ahead to 2016, our majorities in the House of Representatives and the Senate are eager to keep moving forward with our goals of promoting opportunity, creating jobs, and keeping America free from harm. And we as a party are laser-focused every day on putting a Republican president in the White House by building an unprecedented data, digital, and ground game operation for our eventual nominee.”

“I want to wish everyone a happy and prosperous New Year,” said Co-Chairman Sharon Day. “As we reflect on the year gone by and look with hope on 2016, it is my prayer that this will be a year of great things for our families, our communities, our nation, and our world. We ask God for His blessings on America, our people, and especially the brave men and women of our armed services.”
